Many of the Fast Ones Go to Mayfield for Mid-Summer Meet Next Week.

LAST CHANCE FOR A WHILE

On account of the midsummer meet at Mayfield, which will take several of the fastest horses from Paducah for a few days next week, the Matinee club has decided to hold a meet at the Fair Grounds tomorrow afternoon. Although the races are hustled up in short order, a distinct improvement in classification will be noted from the grand stand, just as has marked each succeeding meet from the first. As the marks of the horses are more satisfactorily established they will be more evenly matched, and the contests will be closer. The last two meets exhibited more three heat contests than the first.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION WILL MEET AT ASHLAND IN 1908

The Rev. Calvin M. Thompson Serves Notice of Purpose to Introduce Change in Constitution Next Year

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED TODAY

Mayfield, Ky., June 27.—(Special.)—The next meeting of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists will be held at Ashland, Ky., the last Wednesday in June, 1908. The annual sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams, of Frankfort. Alternate, the Rev. M. E. Dodd, of Fulton.

This was the substance of the report of the executive committee of the association presented this afternoon by the Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, of Paducah. The association will adjourn on completion of business tomorrow.

Dr. Thompson served notice this morning that he will next year present an amendment, making a drastic change in the method of electing members to the state board of missions. At present there are 34 members elected by the association from the state at large. Dr. Thompson's plan is to increase the membership to 76, one to be elected from each of the district associations and seven from the vicinity of Louisville, thus giving all districts representation. Dr. Thompson's plan met with the cordial approval of all the churchmen present.

Anniversary Services.

A special program commemorative of the seventieth anniversary of the establishment of the General Association at Louisville was observed this morning and much interesting data and encouraging prophecies were brought out.

Dr. J. N. Weaver read a paper on "Recollections of Men Who Originated the General Association."

Prof. Arthur Yeager, of Georgetown college, read a paper on "The Baptists of Kentucky and an Educational and Paid Ministry."

Dr. T. T. Eaton, of Louisville, read a paper on "Kentucky Baptist Missions." He said: John Gano, who baptized George Washington, was once under appointment of the Kentucky Mission board.

Daniel Boone's family were Baptists, and his brother a Baptist preacher.

It is untrue to say that the word Kentucky means "Dark and Bloody Ground." It is a Cherokee word, meaning, "Good Country."

Kentucky Baptists planted the seed of the gospel in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri.

Luther Rice, when he returned to America to raise funds for Adoniram Judson, of Birma, secured more in Kentucky than in any other state in the union.

The three great opponents of missionary work in Kentucky were John Taylor, Daniel Parker and Alexander Hamilton.

The income of Kentucky Baptists at present is $12,000,000 annually.

Kentucky Colleges.

Dr. P. T. Hale read a paper on "Baptists of Kentucky and Higher Education."

Dr. A. Gatlin, of Williamsburg, gave to the Kentucky Baptist Educational society $4,000 acres of coal land, of immense value.

Theodore Harris, president of the Louisville National Banking company has offered $100,000 to the educational society for the location of a great Baptist university at Louisville. The proposition is now under consideration and probably will be accepted.

Dr. George B. Eager, of Louisville, closed the service with a brilliant paper on "The Baptists and the Future."

Woman's Mission Society.

All the old officers of the central committee of the Woman's Mission

Chairman—Miss E. Broadus, Secretary—Treasurer—Miss Willie Lamb. Recording Secretary—Mrs. J. M. Prestridge. Vox Dept. and Literature—Mrs. T. M. Sherman, Sunbeam Leader—Miss Edna Wilson. Woman's Column—Mrs. W. H. Matlock. Leader Y. W. Society—Mrs. Scott Duncan. Mrs. S. E. Woody, Mrs. G. B. Eager, Miss E. N. Burke, Miss Lida Ramey, Mrs. H. H. McCullough.

society, which convened in the Presbyterian church and held an enthusiastic session, were elected, as mentioned above.

The total increase in cash contributions the last year was $2,012.63. Boxes valued at $4,386.20 were sent to missionaries. The society gave to home, state and foreign missions $17,202.20.

Annual Sermon.

The annual sermon was preached last night by the Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, of Louisville. His text was taken from Romans 1:16. His subject was: "Grounds for Glorifying in the Gospel of Christ." The three grounds discussed were: The nature of the gospel itself; the purpose of the gospel, and the power of the gospel.

Preceding the sermon Dr. Calvin M. Thompson gave notice of the amendment of the constitution.

Dr. J. N. Prestridge introduced a resolution commendatory of the late Mr. Bramble, of Cynthiana, who left a vast estate to provide a home for education of poor girls of Kentucky.

Ministers Aid.

The report of the Ministers' Aid society showed the following facts: Invested fund, $38,670.35; expended last year, $2,792.50; the headquarters are at Owensboro and the officers are: President, the Rev. W. D. Nowlin; vice-president, J. S. H. Kigels; recording secretary, and auditor, V. T. Field, treasurer; and office secretary, I. N. Parrish; corresponding secretary, Dr. J. D. Maddox, of Owensboro.

The question of orphans' homes was reported on by the Rev. M. B. Adams, and discussed by Dr. J. B. Marvin, a physician of Louisville.

Yesterday Afternoon.

The report on state missions was made by the Rev. H. Boyce Taylor, of Murray. It recommended that state work be projected on a basis of $30,000, about $12,000 above the expenses this year, which was also a record breaker.

Magnificent addresses were delivered by Dr. J. M. Frost, of Nashville; Dr. J. N. Weaver and Dr. J. G. Bow, of Louisville, corresponding secretary of the state board of missions. Dr. Bow is not only the most efficient secretary the board ever had, but is about the best in the south.

Sunday school work was reported by Dr. T. T. Eaton and Hon. F. E. Downer, of Bowling Green.

Among the facts brought out were: That the Sunday school board of the Southern Baptist convention, located at Nashville, in the 16 years of its existence has yielded to the denomination $220,000, besides erecting a plant at a cost of $182,000.

PROMINENT CITIZEN OF GRAND RIVERS IS DEAD.

Mr. T. J. Nickells, 60 years old, a retired farmer of Grand Rivers, who served a term in the state legislature and who has been prominent in politics in this state, died this morning of Bright's disease at his home. Two Year Old Child Burns Himself With Carbolic Acid Summoned by screams of agony, Mrs. Bonner Sills, of 315 Hayes avenue, Mechanicsburg, found Garlin Sills, her two-year-old son, writhing in agony on top of the ice chest this morning at 9 o'clock. The little fellow was suffering from horrible burns on the right side of his face and mouth from carbolic acid. Mrs. Sills was sweeping in the front part of her residence. Her son had been left toddling about the rear. His inquisitive nature prompted him to mount a chair and gain the top of an ice chest, within reach of a shelf holding many colored bottles. Taking a large blue bottle containing carbolic acid, the little fellow either tried to swallow its contents, or else accidentally opened it and let it fall.

PROVIDENT ASS'N TO INCORPORATE

Plans Maturing For Paducah's First Company

Five Months of Its Existence Have Shown Marvelous Progress in Its Line.

IS ONLY SOUTHERN CONCERN.

Incorporation of the Provident Casualty association, Paducah's first insurance company, probably will be accomplished by September 1. The capitalization of the company will be $100,000 fully paid as the Kentucky insurance laws require the capital of any company to be that much and paid up before it can be incorporated.

The Provident Casualty association has been operating for five months on the mutual plan and in that time has made a record scarcely paralleled by any insurance company in its line. More policies have been written in the first five months of its existence than by any company, whose start is known to its officers, and when the year is closed next February, a showing remarkable for this section of the country, will be made. It is the only company writing its particular line of insurance, south of the Ohio river.

This company had a particularly fortunate time to begin operations when an impulse was given to all home companies from the conditions disclosed in some of the big eastern companies. The home capital is realizing that much of the marvelous development of the east has been due to the stream of money poured into that section through insurance channels, and if this money is kept at home, as it safely may be, the south will have more capital on which to develop its resources.

The capital stock of the Provident Casualty association is divided into 10,000 shares of $10 each. Much already has been sold in Paducah, and to give the company a hold in other towns in Kentucky, southern Illinois and Tennessee, stock is being sold there. Subscriptions have not been sought actively so far, but all is expected to be sold by August 1, and have the cash on hand to incorporate September 1.

CAREFUL THIEF ROBS REGISTER

Examines Mechanism and Then Proceeds to Manipulate With Skill of One Acquainted With Its Use

BIEDERMAN MISSES HIS CASH.

It was not an ordinary thief who robbed the cash register in the Jake Biederman Grocery and Baking company's main store. Seventh and Washington streets, last night, but one with some knowledge of machinery of the most delicate nature. He was moreover considerate of his victim's property, and handled it with as much care as he might, had it been his own. Early last evening the Biederman store was closed. It is presumed that the thief was locked inside, probably in the feed room, as no place, where one entered, could be found. In letting himself out, he had pulled the top bolt and opened the door from the inside, after taking $1.25, all that was left in the big cash register. Carefully removing the tabulating attachment, the thief from every indication, examined the inner workings of the register. He then manipulated the register with great skill, opening it without breaking any part, a feat to be accomplished by no green amateur at the cash register handling business. Mr. Biederman missed nothing but the cash.

Ligon was employed as a laborer in the King & Sherrill mill in Mechanicsburg. May 29 his left hand was crushed between logs and 14 days ago lockjaw set in. Ligon suffered the severest pain from the outset, but his remarkable constitution assisted him in making the fight he did. Dr. J. S. Troutman, the attending physician, invoked means known to medical science, but to no avail. It was one of the few cases reported where such a hard and long fight was made, lockjaw generally killing in a few days.

SUPPLY VINEGAR FOR PORTO RICO

O. L. Gregory Closes Contract
With U. S. Government

Will Erect Four More Mills to Make Pure Apple Product and Enlarge His Plant.

PUTS CONCERN FAR TO FRONT.

Mr. O. L. Gregory, of the O. L. Gregory Vinegar company, has returned from Washington, D. C., where he has closed a contract with the government to supply all the vinegar and cider for the government that goes into the island of Porto Rico for the next five years. His offer has been accepted by the government and only the formal ratification of the contract remains, probably in the next ten days.

It is a feather in Mr. Gregory's cap and a distinct triumph for Paducah enterprise to secure this contract. It places this concern along with the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket company, the Columbia Manufacturing company, the Cohankus Manufacturing company and several other Paducah industries that regularly ship abroad. The contract will introduce the O. L. Gregory Vinegar company to the big buyers in the east as the government takes only the best. Mr. Gregory secures the contract in the face of strong competition.

To handle this new business along with the growing business in other lines, the O. L. Gregory Vinegar company is making extensive preparations in the way of building new mills. Mr. Gregory at present is deciding on the location of the new vinegar and cider mills in the east, one of which probably will be in Virginia and one in New York. Both of these states are large apple producers. Since the passage of the pure food law, it is not possible to label anything apple vinegar that is not made purely from apples. Vinegar of a high grade can be made chemically, but it cannot be called apple vinegar.

Two mills are in the course of construction for this company in the state of Arkansas. They will make vinegar only and are situated in the heart of the fine apple growing section of that state. Extensive improvements are being made now in the Paducah mill, Eleventh street and Kentucky avenue. A modern cider and vinegar mill to handle all the apples from southern Illinois orchards, is being installed and other facilities to manufacture and ship large quantities are being added.

While in Washington, Mr. Gregory met the native Porto Rican who looks after the quality of the vinegar supplied to the government. He presented Mr. Gregory with two $100 Panama hats, one of which Mr. Gregory has presented to Mr. Cook Husbands, for several months connected with the vinegar works.

More Than Quinine.

Quinine is simply one of the products of the Cinchona Bark, and the drug which is used in GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC contains more of the active principles of Cinchona Bark than ordinary Quinine. Everyone knows that Whole Wheat and Graham Flour contain more nutrient than ordinary white flour, as part of the properties of the wheat are lost in rendering the flour white. This same thing is true of Quinine, and the drug used in this preparation is a special product which contains more valuable properties than ordinary Quinine. The Standard for 30 years. Etc.

A growing faith will shatter many forms.

PITTSBURG GRAFT

ANOTHER MAN CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY THERE.

Councilman Martin, Already Convicted, Is On Trial On New Charge.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 27.—Charles R. Richardson was convicted in the criminal court this afternoon of conspiring with Harvey P. Bostaph, Joseph Flaherty and J. H. Milholland in attempting to bribe councilmen to pass the Pittsburg and Tube City railroad franchise ordinance. Under the verdict Richardson can be sentenced to the penitentiary for two years and fined $1,000. A. B. McGrew, partner in the stock brokerage business, indicted with him and tried on the same indictment, was acquitted.

President Cameron and Councilman William A. Martin were to have been placed on trial this afternoon on a charge of conspiracy to bribe. The case went over until tomorrow morning at the suggestion of District Attorney H. L. Goehring. It is possible it will be postponed until the next term of court.

Councilman Martin has been convicted of soliciting a bribe of $70,000 from Cameron, Richardson, and others to secure the passage of the franchise. Richardson, it is claimed, loaned Cameron $70,000 cash to show Martin. The money was to be placed in a safety vault, to which Martin would have a duplicate key, but under no circumstances did the promoters intend to let him have any part of the money, according to the testimony. The money mysteriously disappeared in 24 hours. Richardson sued Cameron and Martin for larceny, and this precipitated the scandal. The money was as mysteriously recovered in the corridor of the hotel near a room Cameron's father occupied. Martin is under three years' sentence, but at liberty pending an appeal.

FINE FOR SUICIDE ATTEMPT.

St. Louis Alderman Would Punish
All Who Try to Die and Fail.

St. Louis, June 27.—Councilman John J. O'Brien proposes to make war on persons who attempt suicide and fail. He will introduce an ordinance in the municipal assembly one day next week making attempted suicide a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $50 to $500.

He expects that his ordinance, if enacted, will materially reduce the number of attempts at self-destruction. He thinks it will also stop the practice of bluff suicides. Peevish husbands who chew off the corners of fly paper, drop to the floor and have fits and upon reaching the hospital declare they were only fooling or bluffing, will be subject to the penalties of the new law.

Taking harmless doses of laudanum, a favorite method of wives to frighten husbands into submission, will likewise come within the provision of the anti-suicide ordinance.

that he had any money. Grief over the death of his father had weakened Mr. Randle, and it is thought that his

M'CABE GOES UP, OTHERS FOLLOW

Becomes Superintendent of Nashville Division

T. L. Duggs Goes To Birmingham
Division—Chief Dispatcher Page.

THE NEWS OF THE RAILROAD

Resulting from an extension of lines to Birmingham, Ala., by the Illinois Central, changes affecting Paducah officials, are announced to become effective at once. It is the first general changeup affecting Paducah district in several years.

T. L. Duggs, until a few months ago trainmaster of the Tennessee division of the road, has been transferred from the Nashville division, as superintendent, to be superintendent of the new Birmingham division. L.
E. McCabe, trainmaster of Paducah district, has been promoted to be superintendent of the Nashville division. A. F. Page, chief dispatcher at Paducah, has been promoted to be trainmaster. J. B. Thomas, a trick dispatcher, is made chief dispatcher and his trick is given to C. O.
Griffin, heretofore an operator. Griffin's position is being filled by W.
H. Dye, of the Cumberland river block station.

Mr. McCabe came here several years ago as traveling chief dispatcher.
Mr. Page came here from Chicago several months ago and is a capable man for the new position. Griffin and Thomas have been connected with the local offices for several years, and thoroughly acquainted with the work.

Princeton Station.

Today the new Illinois Central passenger station at Princeton was formally opened. There was no ceremony about the "opening," the offices simply being moved from the old to the new station. Superintendent A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division; Superintendent L. E. Mc-Cabe, of the Nashville division, and Trainmaster A. F. Page, of the Paducah district, went up this morning to see that no hitch occurred.
The new depot cost the road over $30,000 and is said to be second on the division only to the Louisville station.

Nashville Hustlers.

Today a special passenger train is being moved over Illinois Central lines and a Paducah crew is in charge.
The train bears a delegation of business men from Nashville known as "The Hustlers," who are touring the state in the interest of Nashville and her mercantile and manufacturing enterprises. In charge of the train is Conductor Tom Flynn and Flagman G. A. Earnhardt, this city. They caught it at Nortonville this morning and will be out two days, going to Owensboro and Elizabethtown.

Mr. W. H. Yates, a carman employed in the Illinois Central shops, was seriously injured this morning while cutting a nut off a bolt. A piece of iron struck his left eye and injured the ball. It will be several days before it can be definitely told whether the sight will be permanently injured.

Mr. Sylvester Prince, an Illinois Central carpenter, crushed his right thumb badly this morning while working with a piece of iron.

Mr. J. W. West, crushed his left hand this morning while working on a bad order car.

On account of the heavy run of freight into Paducah, an extra switch engine and crew was put on in the Illinois Central local yards last night.

Mr. James McLaughlin, gardener for the N. C. and St. L., went to Benton this morning to further beautify the road lawns and flower gardens.

Mr. J. H. Keller, gardener for the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, is in Paducah trimming the local flower beds and beautifying the station lawn.

Mr. Joe McCarty, of the Illinois Central car shops, killed a three foot water moccasin snake in the shop yards yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. C. Martin, foreman of the Illinois Central paint shops, is slowly recovering from an operation performed several days ago.

James Houser, the well known Illinois Central boilermaker helper, has returned from Waterloo, Ala.

VICTIM OF PREMATURE FOURTH

Little Boy Dies at Effingham, Ill., as Result of Tetanus.

Effingham, Ill., June 27.—Walter Margworth, aged 7, died today of te-tanus, the first victim here of those who celebrate a noisy Fourth. He was wounded in the hand by a toy pistol and lockjaw followed.

Home Made Cannon Wounds Boy.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 27.—The 6-year-old son of Charles E. Johnson was scalped today while playing with powder and firecrackers. A gas pipe loaded with powder exploded and the plug tore off the boy's scalp from forehead to the crown of the head.
He will recover.

GOV. VARDAMAN

CONVERTED BY THE REV. GEO.
CATES, EVANGELIST.

Mississippi Political Leader Says: "I Surrender All to Christ."

Jackson, Miss., June 27.—Gov.
Vardaman last night joined the long list of recruits credited to the zealous and earnest work of Rev. Cates, the revivalist, who has been winning scores of converts daily and nightly.

Gov. Vardaman, to the surprise of the several thousand spectators, arose and strode resolutely to the front of the altar. In a clear, distinct and penitent voice he said:

"I surrender all to the cause of Christ." About thirty followed the example of the governor, and pledged themselves to lead better lives.

Gold Going Abroad.

New York, June 27.—Lazard Freres today announced the engagement of $1,500,000 in gold for shipment to Europe tomorrow. Goldman Sachs & Co., also engaged $1,000,000 in gold today for export to Paris.

Diary Discloses Secret of Russian Girl Who Masqueraded as Man

Chicago, June 27.—The life secret —a plot to secure possession of a $125,000 estate—of Nicolai de Ray-lan, for years secretary to the Russian consul at Chicago, who, after masquerading as a man for 18 years, was found after death to have been a woman, was revealed today.

The story of her reason for starting out on a career of deception that proved her one of the most accomplished actresses in the world and disclosed a Russian scandal that has been hidden for years is contained in her diary and correspondence which is in the possession of Michael Feinberg, 45 Upton street, employed in the office of the public administrator.
Here are the amazing facts disclosed:

1. Nicolai de Raylan's real name was Taletsky. Her Christian name is unknown.
2. She started on her remarkable career of deception in an effort to blackmail her mother in Russia. It became necessary to continue her disguise because she was sought for years by the Russian police.
3. The compelling motive of De Raylan's entire career was an effort to prove that her mother had been masquerading her as a girl when in reality she claimed she was a boy.
4. The figure of principal importance in the events that started De Raylan in her disguise was the late
M. Constantine Petrovitch Pobedonostoff, one of the most gigantic figures in modern Russian history. Procurator of the Holy Synod.
5. M. Pobedonostoff sought her for years through the secret police of Russia to prevent a scandal, he having sworn after an interview that Nicolai was a man.
6. She made love to almost every woman she became acquainted with,
and previous to her two marriages in Chicago became engaged to several.
7. Her second "wife," Anna De Raylan, knew the life secret of "Nico-lai," and received $15 a week over and above living expenses throughout the term of marriage, for a mysterious purpose.
8. Drunkard and Gambler.

The first phase of her life traced in her journal, many pages in which indicate that she was a drunkard, a gambler and a profane roue, depicts her as a school girl. Her mother had placed her in a government school for girls at Kiev, Russia, where the Taletsky family home is situated, and between the ages of 15 and 16 she was to graduate.

Somewhere around this period her mother, who had been well to do before, suddenly acquired considerable more wealth. The figure mentioned in the diary is 250,000 roubles (about $125,000.)

Nicolai, the only given name by which De Raylan is known to have been called, no feminine name appearing in any of her papers, discovered the existence of this sum and became suspicious concerning it.

In some way she found that it had been settled on her mother as trustee by some member of the nobility, to be conserved in the interest of Nicolai.

This discovery made the young girl curious as to the reason for the settlement and caused her to wish for her father, as expressed among her writings, to find from him what mystery surrounded her origin. Her mother, she says, would not tell her who he was.

The open season of trout fishing begins early at Colorado Springs, namely June 1. This season it was crowded forward to May 30. The devoted were out in full force whipping the well stocked streams that get their first life in the frontier range of the Rockies.

Chance is generally little more than a careful laying of lines to win out on.

fied ads, has been "groping his way through life" too long.

PORTUGAL.

What influence has been brought to bear on Carlos I, king of Portugal, by Premier Franco to induce that fat monarch to dissolve parliament, would be interesting to the students of history; for Carlos a year ago vigorously opposed the same policy, and undoubtedly he is acquainted with the character of his people and repeated revolutions that have marked every decade of Portugal's history. It may be the Republican sentiment has become so strong as to drive the government to desperate measures; but just how strong the sentiment is and how it has affected the army King Carlos is soon to know.

Except for the brief sovereignty of Spain, France and the Brazilian pretender, Portugal has been a constitutional monarchy since its foundation as an independent nation in the twelfth century. Its people are much like the people of South America, and while exhibiting little capacity for development of the peaceful nature, they have jealously guarded for development of a peaceful na-constitution was granted. Six years before that a constitution had been granted. In 1828 Don Miguel, of Brazil, made conquest of Portugal It was an absolute monarchy until 1835, when by revolution the constitution of 1820 was restored. Another revolution in 1842 restored the constitution of 1826.

King Carlos has ruled since 1889.

The parliament, or cortes, which he dissolved consisted of a house of peers and a house of deputies. Nearly every year of its existence there has been a deficit in the revenues of Portugal. At present bankruptcy and mutiny among the 60,000 conscripts threatens the existence of the dynasty.

Portugal may be in the throes of a revolution that will change its form of government from a limited monarchy to a republic. The republic would, like those of Latin America, be of unstable equilibrium. On account of its geographical location at the extremity of the Iberian peninsula guarded by mountains and the sea, and the decaying Spanish empire, it might exist a republic in Europe, but as little influential as that of France in teaching the lessons of freedom to the people around it.

Portugal has played an important her glory has

e was the leader
colonizing the world.
abus was exploring Amertuguese navigators were Good Hope to India, and alugal conquered Brazil and colonized the coast of India and Africa, the Azores, Madeira and Mozambique.
She has lost most of her possessions, having been stripped principally by the Dutch, and her outlying provinces comprise additional territory little greater than Portugal herself, stretching 340 by 140 miles along the Spanish frontier.

The recital of Harry Orchard's deeds must increase Jim Hargis' contempt for such molly coddles as Curt Jett.

San Francisco's reputation would be better, if communication was less frequent, anyway.

Germany is said to desire an alliance with the United States; but Uncle Sam replies: "Love me, love my pork."

Pittsburg graeters will learn after awhile that it is just as important to bribe the jury as it is to bribe the city council.

The Peoria, Ill., weighmaster, who was found guilty of graft, bears the distinction of being the only city official thus far investigated, not found short. His weights were found too long.

Bear in mind, the Democratic organ called those who oppose the Democratic candidate, "a few disgruntled soreheads, who, tho at present are standing forlornly out in the rain, will doubtless come in out of the wet ere the shower is over."

It'll be a deluge, all right. But we'll show them who is standing
"out in the wet."

If the good die young and Harry Thaw succumbs to that serious illness contracted in the Tombs, it may be said of him that he died at the age of one year.

In justice to Mr. Muscoe Burnett, of the Paducah Water company, who said he would furnish all the water the park commission desires for the parks free of charge, the ordinance under which the company operates, stipulates for "one fountain" in each park. The park commission is installing 24 hydrants that are furnished free of charge and will have as many drinking fountains as are desired. The offer of Mr. Burnett is public-spirited. He could have stood on his rights and charged the park commission for all above "one fountain."

A NIGHTSHIRT UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

It is not a coincidence but a revelation which makes the story from Bartlesville interesting. The story is that after William J. Bryan was aroused from slumber in a Pullman car to get off at Bartlesville, he left his night-shirt in the berth he had occupied.
The garment fell into the hands of Train Conductor Jefferson Davis, who sent it back along the line to the company's agent, William McKinley, at Bartlesville. And it was William McKinley who handed it over to William J. Bryan. The coincidence in names was rather striking, and justifies the comment being made upon it. But the revelation which will stir the headwaters of the Platte is that the peerless leader who stands for all the rights of the plain people is so addicted to the use of the nightshirt that he must needs strip himself to the buff and then undergo the racking exertion of putting on a night-shirt behind drawn curtains, stretched at full length, and working the garment slowly and painfully downward until it envelops all of him.
Has it come to this, then, that the leader of the plain people is so obsessed with that fetish of the aristocracy, the nightshirt, that he must,
like a veritable parvenu, exaggerate its uses? Why, there are real aristocrats who shake the nightshirt in Pullman cars, unless traveling in compartments or staterooms. The man who insists upon wearing a nightshirt in a berth is sulgeris; neither Democrat nor plutocrat.

But where shall the plain people turn? Hearst's nightshirts are said to be frilled with ruffles of valenciennes lace, but Hearst has deceived nobody in that particular. He is an aristocrat to the finger tips, who insists that more men of his caste have been the real friends of the plain people than they could ever find in their own ranks. And Hearst would not try to put on his nightshirt in a Pullman berth, upper or lower. He travels in a private car, which Bryan doesn't, and that is what saves the situation for the Nebraskan. The boys at the headwaters of the Platte, from shore to shore of that long, narrow peninsula between the north and south branches as they rush together in Lincoln county, have grown to tolerate the sleeping car. Ten years of uninterrupted Republican government and prosperity have enabled many of them to look into the thing, and find that, so far from being a palace on wheels it is a chamber of horrors for all but the patrons of compartment coaches or the na-cobs, who rent the staterooms. The Populist now knows how to sympathize with the man who has to sleep all night in a Pullman berth. Some of them still stick to the old habit of sleeping on top of the stock car when they take their cattle to Chicago, but even these are now able to take the point of view of the sucker who pays

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, innoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. W. B. McPherson, Special Agent.

$2 for the privilege of bumping his own head.

But this does not explain the story of the Bryan nightshirt to the boys at the eadwaters of the Platte. Even after they have forgiven the Pullman car they may find it hard to forgive the nightshirt. As it is Mr. Bryan whose example has led them to regard the Pullman car as a necessity of life when travelling, we entertain the hope that he may yet bring them to see the beauty and utility of the nightshirt, used in the right way and at the proper times and places. But not even his illustrious example, or all his matchless eloquence, will ever move an American citizen from the Platte peninsula to strip himself in a lower berth and then struggle in a shallow and narrow space, to hide himself in a flowing robe needing nothing but a nightcap to complete a feminine tout ensemble from which nothing but the subterranean whisks still in vogue along the Platte could save the wearer. Carrying the night-shirt habit to such an extreme will surely strike that section of country as a degree of affectation which it could forgive in no other man than Bryan. Even he might tax populist favor too far if there was another man in sight to whom the boys at the forks of the creek could turn. The only straw which might break the Populist camel's back will be laid on in that night, in a Pullman berth, when Bryan has to pull on his night-shirt over his feet because he has his whiskers put in curl papers.—St.
Louis Globe Democrat.

France May Find United States Has Big Club to Use in Enforcing Tariff Regulations.

Washington, June 27.—A stout cudgel, by means of which any and every foreign nation can be forced to deal fairly with the United States in tariff matters, has been discovered by the state department. It consists of an old statute, the broad usefulness of which has never been appreciated, and the application of it promises to revolutionize the tariff relations between this and foreign governments.

Secretary Root and M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, had a conference yesterday regarding the pending tariff dispute between the United States and France, and there is reason to believe that Mr. Root did not fail to call this forgotten statement to the ambassador's attention.

Seventeen years ago, when congress passed the original meat inspection act, largely on account of the disfavor with which American meats were being treated in Germany, a which, as now appears, provides the executive authority with a means of retaliation against foreign nations which may discriminate against us in trade matters. It constitutes all the weapons necessary for the prosecution of a vigorous tariff war by the United States, with the prospect of a successful issue all on the side of this government.

We often ask "What is Osteopathy?"
How does it cure?
Osteopathy is a drugless system of medicine which seeks to secure in the human body structural normality of its parts, upon which their vitality and proper functioning depend. "Man is a machine" as we have said, and depends, for health, upon the proper adjustment of all parts of the machine.

The Osteopath examines your body as a skilled mechanic does a machine that is out of order. With a detailed knowledge of anatomy, a sense of touch developed to a high degree, he locates the misadjustments and removes them by scientific manipulation.

Could anything be more reasonable or natural?
The great success attending the Osteopathic treatment is sufficient evidence of its worth. It is a new force in science and grows in popularity every day with the layman.

STOLYPIN WINS

COMPTROLLER OF EMPIRE RE-TIRES FROM CABINET.

Premier at Last Absolutely Dominates Government for First Time.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—The emperor has accepted the resignation of Comptroller of the Empire Schwane-bach, leader of the Reactionary wing of the cabinet in the campaign for dissolution of the duma. The retirement of Schwanebach marks the culmination of Premier Stolypin's protracted struggle for control of his own ministry. Prior to the dissolution of the duma the premier thrice demanded the resignation of the comptroller on account of his constant intrigues against Stolypin's policy of toleration of the duma, but the comptroller's position was so strongly backed at court that Stolypin was unable to prevail.

Stolypin's assent to dissolution of the duma deprived the comptroller of his executive influence and led finally to the presentation of his resignation and its acceptance by his majesty.

Schwanebach was one of the bitterest enemies of Count Witte and is believed to have inspired the press campaign conducted against him abroad. Schwanebach, who has spent his entire life in the state service, is unlikely ever to return to influential position. It is understood that his retirement will be followed by the resignation of other reactionary ministers.

Nail Brushes

One of the best things we have in toilet supplies is a line of Nail Brushes or hand scrubs, made by the Imperial Brush factory, Japan. They are made from the finest selected bristles, prepared by Japanese workmen with the skill for which they are famous, and would cost you 50c to 75c in any drug store. We are able to sell them for 25c, however, because the quantity which we buy would last the ordinary druggist about ten years. Buying large quantities direct from the importer enables us to make money at Next time you want one compare ours with what your druggist offers you. If you do that, we'll make a sale.

Some Animals Really Weep. Animals are said to weep from various causes. Grief at the loss of young ones and mates makes the dog, horse, elephant, rat, bear, deer, monkey, donkey, mule, cattle, camel, and giraffe shed tears.

Sobbing has been proved in the parrot, through this maybe mimicry. The stag at bay and the caged rat have been seen to weep, while monkeys have wept when pitted or from terror.

The elephant has wept at the loss of its liberty, and in some cases also from vexation. The dread of punishment has caused captive chimpanzees and other apes to weep.

Joy, pain, fatigue, thirst, ill usage, sympathy, old age, approaching death and pettishness have all drawn tears from animals or at least have driven them to a tearful state.—From the Little Folks.

W. F. DAVIS DENIES THAT HE COMMANDED THE MOB.

Important Witness For Defence Refutes Accusation of Harry Orchard.

Boise, Idaho, June 27.—William F. Davis, of Goldfield, Nev., one of the most important witnesses for the defense of Haywood was called to the stand. Orchard testified that Davis led and commanded the mob that destroyed the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine in 1899; inspired, as an agent of Haywood and Moyer, the Vindicator explosion and train wrecking plot at Cripple Creek and was an accomplice in the Independence station crime.

Davis went over the story of his working life including the pathetic story of the death of his wife and baby at Cripple Creek, at which he wept, and made positive denial of every statement of Orchard that involved him or his assistants in any form of crime.

He denied that he was even a member of the union when the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine was blown up and at the conclusion of his general story swore that at Cripple Creek during the strike Orchard told him of the Hercules mine affair and threatened to kill Steunenberg.

GETS SEED FROM BROOM,
NOW GROWING BROOM CORN

Capetown, June 27.—An ingenious native named Mazwe, residing in the Umtata district of Cape Colony, has started a new industry that promises to attain some importance. Some time ago he purchased an ordinary American carpet broom, and, noticeing that some of the fibres had seed pods attached, he sowed the seed, and has now a quarter of an acre of excellent broomcorn under cultivation and doing well. Mr. Heywood, the conservator of forests, is also experimenting with the seed, and reports favorably upon its suitability for local cultivation. Mazwe manufactured a broom from his corn, which he exhibited at the Umtata show, and he was awarded a special prize.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are circulating in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure and contaminated state the place will never heal. It may scab over and appear to be getting well, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, sometimes for years, continually growing worse, and slowly sapping away the strength and vitality of the sufferer.

There are many ways by which the blood may become contaminated and poisoned.
A long spell of fever, or other sickness, breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of nature's eliminative members to remove the waste and refuse matter of the body, the excessive use of minerals in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs, which sooner or later manifest their presence by a sore or ulcer which refuses to heal under the ordinary treatment of salves, washes, lotions, powders, etc. A boil, blister, pimple, burn or even a slight scratch, often develops into a festering or discharging ulcer if the system is run down or the blood depreciated from any cause.

Persons with an inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. Being born with an unhealthy blood supply, the different parts of the body are never fully nourished, and when middle life is reached or passed and the vigor and strength of the system begins to weaken and wane, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore or ulcer is formed, and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. How aggravating and stubborn an old sore can be is best known by those who have nursed and treated one for years, applying salves, washes, powders, etc., with no good results. The place remains and continues to grow worse by eating deeper into the surrounding flesh, festering, discharging, sometimes throbbing with pain, and gradually undermining the constitution by its unhealthy action on the system.

It is a great mistake to expect to cure these places with external applications. True this treatment assists in keeping the parts clean, and are beneficial in this way, but do not reach the real trouble which is in the blood. The practice of cutting out the diseased parts and even scraping the bone beneath, is often resorted to, but these severe measures seldom do any permanent good. The sore may be removed, and for a time heal over, but the same poison that produced it the first time is still in the blood, because The Blood Cannot Be Cut Away, and The Sore Will Return.

S.S.S.

PURELY VEGETABLE

The only treatment that can do any real good is a competent blood purifier—one that goes to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing has ever been found to equal S. S. S. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all poison and morbid matter, reduces the inflammation, and by sending pure, rich blood to the diseased parts, instead of feeding them with impurities, allows the sore to heal naturally and permanently. Not only does S. S. S. purify the blood of all poisons and germs, but builds it up from its weakened and impoverished state, making it strong and healthy and able to supply every part of the body with sufficient and proper nourishment to keep it in perfect health. If you have a sore that is slow in healing, do not depend upon external applications alone, nor experiment with unknown medicines, but begin the use of S. S. S., and by removing every vestige of the cause, cure the trouble permanently. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

The KING of DIAMONDS.

By Louis Tracy,

COPYRIGHT, 1904, BY EDWARD J. CLODE.

CHAPTER X.

"THIS is the boy, sir," said the policeman.

"Oh, is that him?" observed the inspector, sticking his thumbs into his belt and gazing at Philip with professional severity.

Philip met their scrutiny without flinching. He leaned against the wall with his hands in his pockets, one fist clinched over the pouchful of gold, the other guarding a diamond bigger than the Koh-i-Noor.

"I am sorry I have only one chair, gentlemen," he said apologetically.

"That's all right lad," said the inspector. "The constable here tells me that you very pluckily helped him to capture a notorious burglar. The man was hiding in this meadow, and it seems you first saw him looking in through your window. What were you doing at the time?"

"Packing my portmanteau."

"Oh, packing your portmanteau."

"Yes, that is it."

He stooped and nonchalantly threw it open. His clothes and boots and some of the other contents were exposed to view. The inspector laughed.

"Not many diamonds there, Bradley."

"No, sir. I told you Mason was talking rubbish."

"Did he say any more about me being the boy who found the meteor?" asked Philip, with a first rate attempt at a grin.

"Wouldn't talk of anything else," volunteered P. C. Bradley.

"Judging by the way he dropped when I hit him, I expect he saw stars," said Philip.

"Are you leaving here?" asked the inspector.

"Yes, I must. The company which owns these premises intends to pull them down on the first of next month."

"What is your name?"

"Anson."

"Ah! I think I remember hearing something about your mother's death. Very nice woman, I was told. A lady too."

"Yes; all that and more."

"Of course. That accounts for your manners and appearance. Have you found some friends?"

The inspector's glance roved from the servicable portmanteau to Philip's tidy garments, and it was his business to make rapid deductions.

"Yes, most fortunately."

"Anybody connected with Sharpe & Smith?" the constable put in.

"Sharpe & Smith? Who are they?"

"Don't you know? Their young man certainly didn't seem to know much about your movements. He has been here twice looking for you. The first time was last week—last Monday about 4 o'clock. I was on duty in the main road, and he asked me for some information. We came and looked in, but your door was locked. The man on this beat this afternoon told me that the same clerk was making further inquiries today, so as soon as I came on night duty I strolled into the meadow to find out if you were at home. That is how I happened to see you."

He turned toward the inspector.

"He was packing his bag at the moment, sir, and Mason had evidently been scared from the window by my footsteps in the arch."

The inspector pursued out his underlip.

"The whole thing is perfectly clear," he said. "Boy, have you got a watch?"

"No," said Philip, surprised by this odd question.

"Bradley, he hasn't got a watch," observed the inspector. He again addressed Philip.

"Where are you going tomorrow?"

"I am not quite sure, but my address will be known to Mrs. Wrigley, the James street laundry, Shepherd's Bush."

"Ah! The constable says you do not wish to be mixed up in the arrest of Mason. There is no need for you to appear in court, but—in such cases as yours—the police like to show their appreciation of your services. That is so, Bradley, isn't it?"

"Yes, sir. If it hadn't been for him, I shouldn't be here now. Jocky had me fairly cornered."

"You had no time to summon assistance?"

"I barely heard he was here before the window was smashed, and I knew he was trying to get out the other way. You heard him, Anson?"

Philip looked the policeman squarely in the eyes.

"You had just taken off your greatcoat when the glass cracked," he said.

Police Constable Bradley stooped to pick up his coat. He did not wish this portion of the night's proceedings to be described too minutely. In moving the garment he disturbed the packet of letters. Instantly Philip recalled the names of the solicitors mentioned by the constable.

"You said that a clerk from Messrs. Sharpe & Smith called here twice?" he asked.

"Yes."

He picked out one of the letters, opened it and made certain of his facts before he cried angrily:

"Then I want to have nothing whatever to do with them. They treated my mother shamefully."

The inspector had sharp eyes.

"What is the date of that letter?" he inquired.

"Jan. 18 of this year."

"And what are those—paw tickets?"

"Yes, some of my mother's jewelry and dresses. Her wedding ring was the last to go. Most of them are out of date, but I intend to—I will try to save some of them, especially her wedding ring."

Jocky Mason's romance was now dissipated into thin air. The contents of the portmanteau, the squalid appearance of the house, the date of the solicitor's letter, the bundle of paw tickets offered conclusive evidence to the inspector's matter of fact mind that the ex-convict's story was the effect of a truncheon rapidly applied to a brain excited by the newspaper comments on a sensational yarn about some boy who had found a parcel of diamonds.

This youngster had not been favored by any such extraordinary piece of luck. Simple chance had led him to put the police on the track of a much wanted scoundrel, and he had very bravely prevented a member of the force from being badly worsted in the ensuing encounter.

A subscription would be made among the officers and men of the division, and they would give him a silver watch with a suitable inscription.

The inspector noted the address given by Philip. It was on the tip of his tongue to ask his Christian name, when the constable suggested that they should examine the stable in which Mason had hidden.

They went up the meadow. Philip locked his door, extinguished his candle and lay down on the mattress, fully dressed, with his newly bought rug for covering.

He was so utterly tired, so exhausted physically and mentally by the storm and drang of this eventful day that he was sound asleep when the two men returned.

They saw him through the window.

"He's a fine lad," said the inspector thoughtfully. "I wonder what he is going to make of himself. We might have asked him who his friends were, but they are not badly off, or he couldn't have got that bag and his new clothes. What on earth caused Mason to connect him with that diamond story?"

"It's hard to say," observed the constable.

"I will look round and have a chat with him in the morning. Poor little chap! He's sleeping like a top now."

The inspector called at No. 3 Johnson's Meads soon after 10 next morning, but the door was locked and the bird flown. He spoke to Mason after that wordy was remained for a week, but a night's painful seclusion had sealed the burglar's lips. He vowed, with fearful emphasis, to "get even" with the kid who "ahed" him, for the policeman's evidence had revealed the truth concerning the arrest. But not another word would Mason say about the diamonds, and for a little while the inspector placed his overnight revelations in the category of myths familiar to the police in their daily dealings with criminals.

Philip awoke shortly before 7.

He was cold and stiff. The weather was chilly, and there was no ardent meteor in the back yard to keep the temperature of the house at a grateful point during the night.

But his active young frame quickly dissipated the effects of a deep sleep on a drafty floor. He washed his face and hands at the sink in the scullery, and his next thought was for breakfast, a proof, if proof were needed, that he arose refreshed in mind and body.

In the Mile End road there are plenty of early morning restaurants. At one of them he made a substantial meal, and, on his return to the meadow, he lost not a moment in carrying out a systematic search through all parts of the house and yard for any traces of the meteor which might have escaped his ken in the darkness.

Amid the earth and broken stones of the excavation there were a few fragments of ore and some atomic specimens of the diamondiferous material—not sufficient, all told, to fill the palm of his hand, but he gathered them for obvious reasons and then devoted five vigorous minutes with O'Brien's spade to the task of filling up the deep hole itself.

By lowering the flagstones and breaking the earth beneath he soon gave the small yard an appearance of chaos which might certainly puzzle people, but which would afford no possible clue to the nature of the disturbing element.

At best they might imagine that the great evidence of some weird crime lay in the broken area. If so, they could dig until they were tired. But, indeed, he was now guarding against a most unlikely hypothesis. The probability was that Johnson's Meads would soon cease to exist and become almost as fabulous as the island of Atlantis.

Moreover, he had a project dimly outlined in his mind which might become definite if all went well with him that day. Then the ownership of No. 3 Johnson's Meads, would cease to trouble him, for Philip was quite sure the whole power of the law would be invoked to prevent him from dealing with his meteor if once the exact place where it fell became publicly known.

O'Brien's shop was scarcely open before Philip was there with his remaining portmanteau.

"Arrah, Phil, me boy! Where in the name of goodness are ye gatherin' the beautiful leather thrunks from?" asked the pensioner.

"This is the last one," laughed the boy. "I am on now to find a cab, and you won't see me again until Monday."

"Fah, he's a wonderful lad entirely!" commented the old man. "What sort of plundher has he in the bags, at all?"

In idle curiosity he lifted the last addition to the pile. It was normal, even light in weight. Then he nodded knowingly.

SWARM OF BEES STOPPED ALL COUNTY'S BUSINESS.

Toms River, N. J., June 27.—There was a lively time around the court house here when a swarm of bees gathered in the courtyard. For several hours all business of the county was help up. Three years ago a swarm of bees came to the court house and lodged in the roof, but until this time the bees had been very peaceable. Today a different story is told. They became very angry and filled nearly every office in the court house, making things very uncomfortable for the officials inside. They swarmed near the entrance of the county clerk's office and many got inside, making it necessary to suspend business in that office for a long time.

A brother of the county clerk was badly stung, and the deputy clerk, who is a popular young woman, was very much attracted by the bees, and some of them became entangled in her hair. She had to call in a passing farmer, who has had experience with bees. He finally corralled the pesky things.

PARDON FOR FLEEING PASTORS

Two Return Home After Escapades and Are Forgiven By Wives.

Bridgeport, N. J., June 27.—Rev. Oscar W. Fischer, who, after resigning the pastorate of St. John's German Lutheran church in this city, deserted his wife and six children on April 1 and disappeared the same day with a choir singer, Miss Christina Scheibing, returned here unexpectedly today. He effected a reconciliation with his wife and family and then immediately went to Philadelphia, where his family will join him in a week or so.

Harrington, Del., June 26.—Rev. M. D. Carpenter, pastor of the Holiness church, who fled after having written a letter to a Miss Della Goodrich, sending the letter by mistake to the recorder of deeds, has returned to Harrington. He was received practically with open arms by members of his congregation and his wife.

HARRIMAN LENDS TO ALTON TO MEET DIVIDEND.

Does Not Wish Period to Be Passed and Has to Contract in Writing.

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Edward H. Harriman has adopted a new attitude toward the Chicago & Alton railroad different from the predatory policy which members of the interstate commerce commission alleged he observed toward that property.

Authoritative information has just reached here to the effect that in order to prevent the passing of a dividend recently on Chicago & Alton Harriman made a loan of $1,000,000 to that line, to be used for improvements. It has been the history of the road under the dual arrangement between Harriman and the Rock Island system that in the years it was controlled by the latter it made money, while this was not the case in alternate years.

At the last meeting of the parties to the agreement in New York it was announced by representatives of the Rock Island that the surplus for the year aggregated $1,400,000, but as the road needed improvements it would waive the dividend and use the money for additional equipment, repairs, etc. Harriman instantly objected, insisting that the dividend should be issued. To practical financiers who listened to him it was evident it was against the interests of the president of the Union Pacific to permit the passing of the dividend because of the criticism that would follow.

Harriman's Word Not Taken.

However, the representatives of the Rock Island were in control, and Harriman, after thinking a few moments, proposed to make a personal loan of $1,000,000 at 5 per cent, to be repaid in 1915, if the board would declare dividends. The proposition was accepted. Further humiliation, however, was in store for Harriman. The board declined to accept his mere word, but insisted that the proposal should be made in writing, and the railroad magnate was compelled to send for the general counsel of this road, who drew up the necessary papers.

An Angler's Elysium.

According to advertisements all summer resorts are alike. They are the best ever—but if fishing is better anywhere else than it is in "Georgian Bay" we do not know where it is. There is a greater variety of fish in this water than anywhere else, and they are always hungry. No one ever counted the fish in the Georgian Bay, but those that have been caught there have been counted and eaten, and if you read the government reports, on fisheries, you know that Georgian Bay supplies more fish than any other equal body of water in the world. The only place you can afford to fish where the fish are numerous, big and delicious in flavor, and that place is Georgian Bay—the fisherman's bay. Suppose you send for booklet, issued by Grand Trunk Railway System free, telling about the home of the bass, pickerel, pike and the noble trout family. Address W. To Taxpayers:

You are hereby respectfully reminded that the first half of your city tax is now due. This friendly notice is intended to save you from forgetfulness, which might cost you 10 per cent. penalty.

Would earnestly request all who can conveniently do so, to call at the city treasurer's office soon as possible and thus avoid the crowd that usually throng the office on the last few days. Ten per cent. is added to all unpaid June bills, after July 1. Call early and greatly oblige.

Yours very truly,

GERMANY STOPS WORK OF THE CAMERA FIEND.

Berlin, June 27.—The snapshot photographer in Germany is threatened with extinction after July 1 owing to the risk he will run of being mulcted in heavy fines under the new act which goes into force on that date.

The right of all persons to the exclusive reproduction of their own portraits or those of their houses or belongings is made absolutely by the new enactment. The law, however, permits the granting of permission by anyone to a photographer to take his photograph or that of his landscape or of his cattle or horses, but there is danger ahead for the amateur or professional who takes snapshots of some one or something without previously arming himself with the necessary authorization. Prosecution and punishment may quickly follow.

Even when requested by a friend to take a photograph of a room with its contents, which the owner may desire, the danger is still great, for if these are recognizable in the photograph, the photographer is liable to prosecution by the artist.

SAME POLICY

WILL GUIDE RIVERSIDE HOSPITAL IN FUTURE.

New Superintendent Comes Highly Recommended—Miss Hargis Is Rewarded.

Miss Valeria M. Knisley, superintendent-elect of Riverside hospital, is a graduate of the Medico-Chirurgical college, and has had experience in the Minnequa hospital at Pueblo, Colo. She comes highly recommended. She will arrive Sunday to relieve Miss Edith Crooks, of Louisville, who resigned after a most successful year's work. Miss Lula Hargis, head nurse at Riverside, for her devotion to her duty and ability was given an advance of $10 a month by the hospital board. The election of Dr. J. T. Reddick to succeed Dr. Frank Boyd, as secretary of the hospital board insures a continuance of the policy, which has gained a reputation for the institution.

Cornell Wins Boat Race.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27.—Cornell won the varsity eight-oared race at the intercollegiate regatta for the eighth time this evening in the most exciting contest ever rowed over the four mile Poughkeepsie course. Cornell's time was 20:02-2-5; Columbia was second, the Naval academy third, Pennsylvania fourth, Wisconsin fifth, and Georgetown sixth. Syracuse did not finish, her shell being swamped half a mile from the finish.

We heard a boy say this morning: "I'll not fight any boy that throws rocks."

TEXAS GULF COAST LAND

If you wish a new home go to the Texas Gulf Coast country, where you can live and enjoy life, immigration is already in that direction and as a consequence development will be rapid. As to climate, health and production it is a veritable second California. The soil is deep and rich, producing well cotton, corn, alfalfa, sugar cane, etc., also all kinds of fruit and truck. Something will grow every day in the year, the winter crop being as profitable as the summer crop. The thermometer scarcely ever reaches freezing and never goes higher than 98. Health is of the best, chills and fevers never occurring. This country has good drainage, a continual gulf breeze, a healthful climate, good railroad service and a continual growing season; it has no blizzards and no hot winds. Its greatest need is people. Land in small tracts is $10 to $30 per acre; in large tracts is $5 up, according to location. Terms easy.

If you desire a farm of 40 acres or more, a ranch or other large tract; or a winter home away from the cold of the north we can suit you. Come go with us on a cheap excursion and investigate.

CHARMING LADY

MISS ROLFSON SUBMITS TO INTERVIEW ANENT HER

Power—No Muscular Force Excited as Demonstrated in Several Ways By This Woman.

Miss Marie Rolfson who is appearing at Wallace park Casino, turns out to be a charming lady who consented gracefully to an interview. The first topic was of course, that mysterious power which manifests itself through her.

"What it is exactly," said Miss Rolfson, I am really unable to say. You can say that I undergo a certain undefinable change upon a flesh contact with the subject of my experiment. I should define it as forcing a circuit, physical strength has nothing to do with it. A man of exceptional strong physique may become as a child in my hands, but the especial qualification is a good intellect. Some exceptional people I can lift without contact, but a drunkard is utterly useless for scientific investigation. I have placed a paper band over the muscles of my arm and conducted experiments without breaking it. Also my subject may securely hold a hen's egg in his hand whilst I perform my feat of lifting him in a chair, with the egg held in his hand and his hand between my hand and the chair while I lift. Thus I am convinced that muscular force is not used, if it was the egg would break."

When asked to explain what is the nature of the power, which thus flows out of her she is speechless. She does not know nor can any scientist yet consulted enlighten her. The girl herself is a prodigy in no other way, as her physique is quite of the ordinary kind and she shows her muscles are quite unused in lifting or in her resistance to be lifted herself. For example, after having shown that an ordinary man can with ease raise her three or four feet in the air just as a father tosses his infant in the air, she suddenly takes a stand on the floor and defies the efforts of ten strong men to raise her by so much as an inch. Here there is no possible advantage to be gained from posture. The gentlemen stand on either side of her and lift vertically. The girl's weight is not more than 115 pounds. The men can lift easily in their positions 1,500 or 2,000 pounds, yet they cannot raise Miss Rolfson a hair's breadth from the floor to which she has chosen to adhere.

One of Miss Rolfson's most remarkable feats is to stand upon one foot and let twenty or thirty gentlemen try to throw her off her balance.

The Chicago Tribune says: The pilot of the steamboat James Fiske, Jr., that made daily trips from Paducah to Cairo was the owner of a dog that enabled him to steer his vessel safely through a dangerous chain of rocks that lie in the Ohio river about midway between the two cities. The pilot's home was on the high bluff near the Grand Chain, as it is called, and when he made his downward trip in the forenoon the dog was always on the lookout and would wag a friendly greeting to his master. On the return trip (always after dark) the dog would go down to the river and walk far out on the exposed rock always selecting a certain spot, where he would howl long and loud until the boat disappeared around the bend into safe water. He kept his lonely vigil for years, and was known among rivermen from Pittsburg to New Orleans. Other pilots steered their vessel by the sound of the faithful watcher's voice. His deeds were recounted by our representative at Washington in a speech pleading for an appropriation for the improvement of the channel of the Ohio river. A government light now stands on the spot where the pilot's dog once sent forth his mournful warning.

"Free beer" in a newly opened saloon on the south side practically left the river without labor this afternoon. All the coal docks negroes left for the scene of the free flowing bowl and the Fannie Wallace had to shift for herself.

T. B. Pierson has gone back on the Fannie Wallace as captain, and pilot, and Wesley Bennett will go to Hot Springs, Ark., for a visit.

The Harth is laid up for repairs after taking the Fannie Wallace's place for several weeks.

The Charles Turner will get away Friday for the Tennessee river when the burnt boilers are repaired.

Gasoline launch parties on the river are becoming nightly events and a class of professional operators has grown up to supply the demand. In addition to the numerous private launches, there are many handsome ones for rent. There are few more delightful outings than a trip up the river in the moonlight on a fast launch.

The moonlight excursion planned by one of the churches on the Dick Fowler tonight has been called off. The Dick Fowler cleared for Cairo this morning with a large number of young persons taking the round trip.

Business will pick up with all the packets with the approach of the wheat season. The St. Louis-Tennessee river boats, Lee Line, Evansville, Cairo and Paducah line, Cumberland river boats, in fact every packet touching here will get some of the business. Decks covered with sacks of wheat will be a familiar sight, and the clerks will have extra hours to work in handling them.

The Peters Lee arrived on time this morning at 10:30 o'clock from Memphis and left after taking on a good passenger list and freight business for Cincinnati.

A clerk from the Dunbar has been at the wharf all day receiving freight for that packet, which will arrive late this afternoon and leave for Nashville as soon as the business can be handled.

The John S. Hopkins with Captain Bewley on the deck, arrived on time, of course, this morning and left for Evansville with a satisfactory trip.

The wharfbat has one lasting attraction to the Paducah small boys aside from the excitement of the water. Peanuts usually are lying all over the wharfbat and if the officers are not watching, the boys get a handful.

The Blue Spot did not leave until this morning for the Tennessee river. The Savannah will arrive tonight or in the morning from St. Louis for the Tennessee river.

The Kentucky will arrive tonight from the Tennessee river and wait until Saturday before returning.

The bottom is falling out of the river now. A fall of 2.8 was registered this morning for the last 24 hours. The difference between the stage on this date 19.7 and on the same date last year 10.1 is growing smaller.

"Where, O! where, has my little dog gone?" is the song sung nowadays by Harry Blackford, of the West Kentucky Coal company. "Rags" left on the Joe Wheeler ten days ago, but he will come home wagging his tail behind him.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio from Evansville to Paducah will continue falling during the next 3 days. At Cairo will continue falling during the next 36 hours, passing below 32 feet. The Tennessee at Florence will fall slowly during the next 24 hours. The Mississippi from St. Louis to Cairo will rise during the next 36 hours.
